Chairman's Desk

Effective communication in an organization cannot be overemphasized. In a bid to enhance effective dissemination of information on the campus crucial activities and to bridge information gap between Management, Staff and Students, the University Management has approved a periodic publication of the University Bulletin.

This Bulletin is meant to give timely, correct and accurate information to members of the University Community. Such important information would either come from; the Governing Council, the Senate, Management, Faculties, Departments, Registry, Bursary or from other Units. It is hoped that the bulletin will stem rumours and curb the spread of fake news on the campus. This initiative should also promote communication, clarification and understanding among the different stakeholders that will engender peace, progress for speedy development. The bulletin will be published monthly with Special Editions as the need arises. Savour it!

New ASUU Executive Pays Courtesy Call On The Vice-Chancellor

The Vice-Chancellor, Professor Angela Freeman Miri played host to the New ASUU Executive on 20th February, 2019. The purpose of the visit as revealed by the branch Chairman of the Union, Dr. Joseph O. Folorunsho, was to introduce the new Executive to the Vice-Chancellor and Management. The Executive pledged to cooperate and support Management to achieve its vision.

In her response, the Vice-Chancellor said she lifted the ban on union activities immediately she assumed office because of the value she place on staff welfare, hence acknowledge and appreciate the role of ASUU in the welfare of its members. Also, she promised to continue to support ASUU and enjoined them to interact more with Management to ensure free flow of accurate information between Management and ASUU to forestall industrial disharmony.
